To Begin Again After Loss: Putting the Pieces Together

Lauri S. Bauer Foundation for Sudden Loss
Third Annual Conference on Help, Healing and Hope after Loss

Join us for a hopeful evening with Rabbi Naomi Levy as she shares an inspiring message using personal stories, lessons learned from her congregants and Jewish wisdom. Levy is a unique and passionate voice in the contemporary Jewish world and founder and spiritual leader of Nashuva, a groundbreaking Jewish outreach organization based in Los Angeles.

A best-selling author and speaker, Levy attended Cornell University where she was in the first class of women to enter The Jewish Theological Seminary's rabbinical school. A natural and engaging storyteller, Levy has written three books, To Begin Again, Talking to God and Hope Will Find You.

Event Sponsors:

The Lauri S. Bauer Foundation for Sudden Loss is dedicated to helping those who have suffered a sudden loss and are in need of assistance to reclaim their lives.

The Jewish Healing Network offers resources, information and spiritual support in the Jewish tradition at times of illness and loss.
